

Rhapsodi Douglas – President

Rhapsodi spent her formative years in the Atlanta Metro Area and attended the University of Georgia with a B.A. marketing she launched her career in Marketing and Advertising. In her work life, she was gripped by the lack of women and minorities in leadership positions. This passion fueled Rhapsodi to transition her career into Human Capital Consulting where she wants to help organizations to realize meaningful Diversity and Inclusion among employees. Outside of class, Rhapsodi loves to host dinner parties, dance, listen to music and enjoy a great glass of wine. Rhapsodi is currently a proud resident of West Harlem and loves to meet new people, so don't hesitate to say hello if you see her around!

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/rhapsodi>

Kelly Gaess – Vice President of Alumni Engagement

Kelly grew up in Buffalo, NY, and moved to Richmond, VA, for her undergrad. Before coming to TC, she spent several years in New York working at a large professional services firm. While there, she realized a passion for organizational psychology, and endeavored to return to school! Kelly loves all things food and can often be found on weekends scoping out the city's farmers markets in search of inspiration. She's thrilled to be beginning her second and final year and loves to meet new people. Feel free to reach out!

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/kelly-gaess-837a6519>

Wun (Doria) Huang – Vice President of Budget

Born and raised in Hong Kong, Doria then moved to Shanghai for eight years and lived in Los Angeles for five years. Now currently reside in New York city, she studies organizational psychology at TC wishing to develop her expertise and strengthen her skills in organizational effectiveness and people operation. Doria appreciates sunshine, outdoor, beautiful beaches, dipping her feet in the chilly water and chasing the ocean waves. In her spare time, Doria enjoys running and trying all kind of Asian cuisines. She is always down for locating the best sushi place in town with friends!

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/wunhuang>

Kathy (Yajing) Lan – Vice President of Member Engagement

Kathy (Yajing) Lan was born and raised in Guangzhou, China, and has been living in different parts of the States in the past 6 years. Kathy holds a BS in Psychology and a BA in Sociology from Washington State University in Pullman, Washington, and she has worked in social sciences research, higher education, and the tech industry. Through different jobs Kathy found her passion in people and groups, and it brought her to the Big Apple and TC. In her spare time Kathy enjoys running, hiking, karaoke, or trying out different restaurants.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/kyjlan>

Anthony Yeung – Vice President of Professional Development

Anthony grew up in Hong Kong, China, and studied music therapy and psychology for 5 years in University of Miami. After graduated from UM, he worked as a hospice music therapist for 4 years in Naples, Florida. Anthony decided to switch his career path after experiencing a series of organizational changes and came to TC. When not camping at the TC library, he enjoys talking about basketballs, playing video games, collecting action figures, and playing music.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/ayeung1>

Sarah Brazaitis, Ph.D. – OHDCC Faculty Advisor

Sarah is privileged to have served as OHDCC's faculty advisor for the past 11 years. Sarah's teaching, research, and practice work centers on group and team dynamics and their intersections with social identity. OHDCC is one of the highest performing, and most diverse teams Sarah has ever advised. Its members' energy, initiative, creativity, wisdom, commitment, and love of a good time are infectious, and Sarah most definitely has caught the fever. She is looking forward to continuing to partner with such an extraordinary organization. In her spare time, Sarah can often be found on or around a baseball field, cheering on, playing with, and coaching her sons, usually while holding a cup of coffee, a can of lime Perrier, or both.